P. Mosley, B. Ingham : Sir Arthur Lewis: A Biography (Great Thinkers in Economics) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Sir Arthur Lewis: A Biography (Great Thinkers in Economics):

Sir Arthur Lewis was the first development economist, the first Afro-Caribbean to hold a professorial chair at a British university and the first black man to win the Nobel prize for economics. However, he believed his contributions to the well-being of the poor through social and political activism were as important as his economics.

About the Author Barbara Ingham is Honorary Research Associate at the School of African and Oriental Studies, University of London. Paul Mosley is Professor of Economics at the University of Sheffield
