George Manning and Kent Curtis present 'need to know's' essentials of leadership in a clear, well organized manner that facilitates practical transfer of knowledge from classroom to workplace. In addition to being well researched and written, the Art of Leadership offers numerous case studies, interactive exercises and self-assessments to foster individual and group development. That George Manning is actively engaged with a myriad of organizations in the education and application of these principles, lends credence to the powerful impact this work can have within any organization. Also, the 2015 edition is the latest rendition covering the topic of Leadership ensuring a melding of traditional and current thinking. Anyone interested in the notion of leadership development needs to acquire and use what the Art of Leadership has to offer. following review helpful. UsefulBy L. CurtisSmall print is annoying, but I appreciate that it has practical advice for leaders, instead of just theory. Good deal getting it here on instead of the college bookstore.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Need to ReadBy CustomerGeorge Manning is one of the most inspiring leaders I have had the pleasure to train under. This book is a great resource and no leader should be without it. Even the most seasoned leaders can learn from the material in this book. What it offers can only enhance ones leadership skills. Now I can't wait for his other book, Stress: Living and Working in a Changing World! Thank you for helping me to be a better leader!!

The Art of Leadership 5th edition is based on two ideas. Leadership will take place to the extent the leader cares about the work to be done. Equally important the leader must care about people. Neither of these qualities is sufficient without the other and neither can be false. People know when the leader cares. When the leader is committed to the task and is concerned about people these qualities serve as magnets and motivators to followers and their potential for achievement becomes enormous. Leadership is an art that can be developed through mastery of nine key areas of success. The successful leader must possess knowledge and skills in the following areas: understanding leadership variables the power of vision the importance of ethics the empowerment of people leadership principles understanding people multiplying effectiveness developing others and performance management. The difference between most other leadership texts and The Art of Leadership 5th edition can be compared to the difference between a lecture and a seminar. Although both are good educational vehicles the lecture is better for conveying large amounts of information while the seminar is better for developing skills and attitudes. A good lecture is interesting and builds knowledge while a good seminar is stimulating and builds competency. Without sacrificing either theoretical foundation or important content the fifth edition of The Art of Leadership emphasizes the interactive seminar approach to learning.
